A previous note had also been received from Minis.er Willis, in which it is understood he acquiesced in the notice served upon him, that no troops should be landed from the United States menof-war without the written consent of the Provisional Government.

The matter had been discussed in the Cabinet, but no conclusions had been reached, and Minister Damon suggested that the advice of the Advisory Council be asked.

The matter was taken up in open session before a large number of visitors, and resulted in the passage of the following resolutions with but one dissenting voice:

The same evening a rumor was started that Minister Damon had resigned, or had told two Royalist office-holders that he would resign before he would consent to their dismissal.

In an interview with the representative of the Associated Press yesterday Minister Damon declared he had no intention of resigning. "You can state positively," said he, "there is no dissension in the Cabinet."

When seen this morning President Dole stated that investigations of misconduct and disloyalty in office-holders under the Provisional Government would begin at once, and whenever removals were found necessary they would be made without fear or favor.

HONOLULU, H. I., Dec. 9.—Although the situation has not virtually changed in the three days which have eiapsed since the sailing of the steamer Oceanic, several matters of more or less importance have transpired, and the latest diplomatic communications between Minister Willis and the Provisional Government have been secured by the Associated Press.

On Nov. 28 President Dole addressed a, note to Minister Willis in which it was stated that the Provisional Government had received notice from Minister Thurston of Secretary Gresham's letter. The Provisional Government to be informed what were the intentions of the United States in relation to the recommendations of the Secretary of State.

On Dec. 2 a reply was received by President Dole, in which Minister Willis stated in substance that he considered the letter of Secretary Gresham adomestic matter with which he (Willis) had nothing to do. It was his opinion, however, that the letter of Secretary Gresham adomestic matter with which he (Willis) had nothing to do. It was his opinion, however, that President Cleveland would decide to lurnish definite information and instructions as soon as he had received certain idvices which had already been transitied to him.

It was Minister Willis's opinion that President Cleveland would be able to some to a conclusion because he was anxious to have the Hawaiian troubles peedily settiled.

A previous note had also been releved from Minister Willis, in which it it understood he acquiesced in the notice.

President Wilson, of the Health Board, in reference to the matter, said:

"The corporation is better able to answer the query as to whether the smoke is a nuisance or not. The New York Steam Company has a right to a hearing for the purpose of convincing the Commissioners that the smoke their furnaces make is not a nuisance.

"I have not yet received a letter from President Andrews, and the corporation will be allowed a certain number of hours in which to file an application to continue their use of soft coal."

President Wilson is preparing a lot of statistics showing that soft coal can be used without the presence of the dense black smoke. He said the hearing would take place next week, and some interesting matters would be made public.

Gen. Clark, Secretary to the Health Board, said that some years ago the Department had trouble with the New York Central Raliroad about using soft coal. The matter was settled by their using hard coal and coke within the city limits, thus avoiding the smoke.

A Resident Says the City Is Apparently Undisturbed.

"Meantime some of his ships got possession of a large quantity of valuable stores. Up to Nov. 18 he still continued to make war on the almost defenseless town, doing considerable damage in the neighborhood of the battery. As soon as the bombardment of Nictheroy commenced, the inhabitants left, and the soldiers of the National Guard took charge of the place and still hold it.

"Admiral Mello and his fleet of hulks keep out of the range of the shore battery. Up to Nov. 18 there had been no bombardment of the city of Rio. It is true that probably a score of solid shot had been dropped about different parts of the city, but I do not believe more than five or six shells have been fired into the city.

"I should estimate that the amount of damage done to the whole city of Rio from the so-called bombardment would be, say, at round figures, some $75,000. There has been an almost constant shower of Nordenfeldts shot dropping about the city, but as the shot is only two and one-haif inches long by three-quarters of an inch thick, and fired from the fleet at long range, very little damage is done.

"One woman was killed by a shell on the hill, and a man and a woman were killed in one of the streets; also, a bank clerk was killed in a restaurant. There are a good many rifle shots flying at all times, and the most of the carnage has been caused by these silent missiles.

"The buildings that have been struck by shot and shell have mostly been repaired, and the erection of large and costly buildings is not disturbed by the unsettled state of affairs. The streets are being repaved, and many city improvements are in full blast. The grass in the streets is regularly mowed when not used for pasture.

"The damage to the forts, as far as can be seen, is one block of stone on Fort Lage broken, showing a square hole about three by one and one-half feet, and a wooden building is said to be missing. The other forts, St. Cruse and St. John, look lonely and show no battle scars. I should say to repair the damage to Fort Lage $5,000 would
